Dear Parents/Guardians,

Edusave Character Award (ECHA)

1. The Edusave Character Award (ECHA) recognises students who demonstrate exemplary character and outstanding personal qualities through their behaviour and actions. The award also supports the school's continuing efforts in nurturing students of good character and values, who are active contributors and concerned citizens.
2. Eligibility Criteria:
The ECHA is meant to recognise and affirm students who demonstrated exemplary character and outstanding personal qualities through their behaviour and actions.
Students must satisfy the following eligibility criteria before they can be awarded the ECHA:
 - (a) Students must be Singapore Citizens studying in government/government-aided primary or secondary schools, independent schools, specialised independent schools, specialised schools or junior colleges/centralised institute (JC/CI); and
 - (b) Students must, on a consistent basis, demonstrate good character and values. In particular, students may be identified for demonstrating the following types of qualities:
 - i. School values and/or character traits. These refer to the values and character traits that the school wishes to recognise or encourage, e.g. teamwork, honesty, innovativeness, kindness, enthusiasm and resilience.
 - ii. A high level of civic responsibility. These would be students who are concerned about issues in the community or issues faced by others, initiating action to address these issues to improve the lives of others, and being committed to make a positive difference; and/or
 - iii. Qualities associated with resilience. These are students who have persevered despite facing challenging circumstances (e.g. financial hardship, family difficulties or health issues) and have overcome these obstacles to achieve commendable outcomes in both academic and non-academic domains.
